Ready for Takeoff: My First Airplane Adventure

I packed my bag. I put in my teddy bear. I felt excited.

We went to the airport. There were lots of people. It was busy.

I held my mom's hand. We went through security. I felt safe.

I put my bag on the belt. It went through a big machine. I waited.

A friendly lady smiled. She gave my bag back. I said, "Thank you."

We found our gate. I saw big windows. I watched planes.

I heard engines roar. They were loud.
I covered my ears.

We sat and waited. I played with my toy. Waiting was hard.

The lady called our flight. It was time to go. I felt happy.

We walked down the tunnel. I held my ticket. I was ready.

I found my seat. I sat by the window. I looked outside.

The seatbelt clicked. I stayed buckled.
I felt safe.

The plane moved fast. We went up, up, up. My tummy tickled.

I saw clouds. They looked fluffy. I felt like I was flying.

We landed safely. The seatbelt came off. I was proud.

I had my first airplane adventure. I did it! I felt brave.
