

Using Gentle Hands with Our Toys

I was playing with the remote. It felt fun to hold.

I wanted to see it fly. I threw it across the room.

The remote hit Mom's face. She looked surprised.

Mom said, "That hurt me." I felt sad.

I didn't want to make Mom feel bad. I wanted to make it better.

I took a deep breath. I said, "I'm sorry,
Mom."

Mom smiled a little. That made me feel better.

Mom said, "Let's use gentle hands." I nodded.

I learned to hold the remote softly. It felt nice in my hand.

I asked, "Can I try again?" Mom said,
"Yes."

I held the remote gently. I showed Mom.

Mom smiled big. I felt proud.

We played together with the remote. It was fun.

I liked using gentle hands. It made Mom happy.

When I use gentle hands, toys stay safe. Friends can play too.

I felt good. I can use gentle hands with my toys.
