

Space Adventures with Friends

I saw my friends playing with space toys.

I wanted to join their space adventure.

I felt a little shy.

I took a deep breath.

I asked, "Can I play too?"

My friend smiled and said, "Yes, join us!"

I was happy to be included.

We pretended to be astronauts.

I waited for my turn with the space rocket.

When it was my turn, I felt excited.

I passed the rocket to my friend.

My friend said, "Thank you!"

We shared the space toys and laughed.

I felt proud to play nicely.

We had fun exploring space together.

I learned asking and sharing makes playtime fun!
