

Taking My Dog for a Fun Walk

I have a dog named Buddy, and today we are going for a walk. I feel excited because walks are fun.

First, I need to get ready. I put on my shoes and grab Buddy's leash and his favorite toy.

Buddy gets very happy when he sees the leash. I can see his tail wagging fast.

I ask Mom to help me put on Buddy's special walking vest. It keeps him safe.

Once Buddy is ready, we open the door. I feel the fresh air on my face, and it makes me smile.

We start our walk down the sidewalk.
Buddy walks next to me, sniffing everything.

I see my neighbor, Mrs. Green, and wave hello. She smiles and waves back.

Buddy sees another dog, and I hold his leash gently. It's important to keep him close.

The other dog's owner asks if they can say hello. I say yes, and Buddy sniffs the new friend.

I feel proud because I helped Buddy meet another dog safely.

We continue our walk to the park.
Buddy loves the park because there's so much to explore.

I let Buddy play with his toy for a little while. He looks so happy.

After some time, it's time to go back home. I tell Buddy it's time to go, and he listens.

On our way back, I think about all the fun we had. I feel happy.

When we get home, I give Buddy a big hug. He is my good friend.

I love taking Buddy for walks. It makes both of us feel joyful and strong.
