

Visiting the Friendly Doctor

Today, I go to see the doctor. The doctor's office is in a big building. I hold my mom's hand.

The doctor wears a white coat. It is soft and clean. I think it looks nice.

The doctor has a stethoscope. It goes around the neck. It makes a "lub-dub" sound on my chest.

The doctor checks my eyes. I look up and down. The doctor smiles and says, "Good job!"

The doctor looks in my ears. It tickles a little. I giggle and feel happy.

Sometimes, the doctor gives me a small injection. It is quick and helps me stay healthy.

The nurse gives me a sticker. I feel brave. I like my sticker a lot.

I wave goodbye to the doctor. I feel proud. I did a great job today!
