Making new friends can be fun and exciting

I sometimes feel shy, but I remember that everyone feels that way at first

---

I start by smiling and saying hello to someone new

---

I ask them their name and tell them mine. This is the first step in getting to know someone

I find things we have in common, like our favorite games or cartoons

I invite them to play or share an activity with me

Listening is important. I listen when they talk and learn about them

I share things about myself too, like my favorite color or animal

If they're playing a game, I ask if I can join and follow the rules

Being kind and helpful is a good way to make friends

I remember to use nice words and actions with my new friends

---

Sometimes, I invite my new friend to play again another day

If they don't want to play, that's okay. I can try again or find someone else to be friends with

Every friend is different, and that's what makes each one special

---

I enjoy making new friends and learning new things from them
