

Today, I brought my favorite toy car to the park

My friend Sam saw it and his eyes lit up

I felt unsure about sharing it at first

Mom reminded me that sharing can be fun

I decided to let Sam play with the car

Sam was so happy, and we raced the car together

We took turns pushing the car on the path

It was fun seeing the car go fast and spin

After playing, Sam thanked me for sharing

I felt good about sharing my toy

Mom said she was proud of me for being kind

I learned that sharing with friends can make playtime even better
