

You overhear your parents discussing a surprise party for your sibling

I heard you're planning a surprise party!

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

1

Your mom tells you she's worried about work while helping you with homework

Mom always talks about work problems

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

2

You find a gift your parents are hiding for your birthday

I found my birthday gift!

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

3

Your sibling tells you they broke a vase and are scared to tell your parents

You're going to be in so much trouble!

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

4

You hear your grandparents arguing about something minor

Grandma and Grandpa are fighting!

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

5

Your parents are discussing finances and seem stressed

Why are Mom and Dad always talking about money?

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

6

Your sibling confides in you that they feel sad at school

Why can't you just be happy?

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

7

You don't like the dinner your other parent made

This dinner is yucky

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

8

You hear a relative speaking negatively about another family member

Auntie said something mean about Uncle

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

9

You find your older sibling's diary and read something personal

I read your diary! Why did you write that?

THINK IT

or

SAY IT

10

1. THINK IT "Surprises are fun when they stay secret. Let's keep what you heard just between us until the party!"
2. THINK IT "Sometimes adults have worries they share quietly. It's kind to listen, but we keep their worries private, just like they do for us."
3. THINK IT "Finding something unexpected like a gift can be exciting, but let's keep the surprise fun by not telling anyone."
4. THINK IT "When someone shares something they're worried about, it's better to help them think of ways to fix the situation instead of making them more scared."
5. THINK IT "Everyone has disagreements sometimes, even grandparents. It's respectful to give them privacy and not talk about it with others."
6. THINK IT "Money can be a grown-up worry. It's good to let adults handle their talks privately, just like how we keep our small worries to ourselves."
7. THINK IT "When someone trusts you enough to say they feel sad, it's important to listen and be kind, not judge their feelings."
8. THINK IT "It's okay not to like something, but saying it can hurt feelings. Maybe quietly tell your parent later that it's not your favorite."
9. THINK IT "Hearing grown-ups say unkind things can be confusing, but it's best to let adults handle their own issues."
10. THINK IT "Finding and reading someone's diary is an invasion of privacy. If you've seen it, keep it to yourself and remember everyone deserves their private space."