1. THINK IT "Even if you think your idea is better, it's nice to listen to others' ideas too. Everyone can contribute to solving a puzzle."
2. THINK IT "Sometimes people need more time to finish their work. It's important to be patient and offer help if you can."
3. THINK IT "It's good to give new things a try, even if you're unsure about the rules. Maybe you'll like it once you start playing."
4. THINK IT "It's better to suggest improvements or ask questions about the idea rather than saying it's bad right away."
5. THINK IT "Finding a solution that works for everyone is part of solving problems. Maybe you could help them decide on turns instead."
6. THINK IT "Everyone's ideas are important. Even if your idea wasn't chosen this time, being supportive of the group's decision shows good teamwork."
7. THINK IT "Remember, what's easy for you might be hard for someone else. Offering to explain it gently can be a big help."
8. THINK IT "It's okay to have different tastes, but saying something is boring can upset others. Try to find something positive about the chosen book."
9. THINK IT "Sometimes we have to go along with family plans. You might end up enjoying it more than you expect."
10. THINK IT "It's good to consider new ideas. If you really think it won't work, suggest a compromise instead of dismissing the idea."
