

Fun with Friends: Sharing and Taking Turns

I saw my friend, Mia, at the playground.

I took a deep breath.

Mia smiled and said, "Yes!"

I had the red block. Mia had the blue one.

We took turns stacking the blocks.

Mia wanted to play on the swings next.

We took turns on the swings.

I felt happy playing with Mia.

Vocabulary

⇒ ■ Vocabulary:

1. Friend

- Someone you like and enjoy spending time with

2. Shy

- Feeling a little nervous or quiet around people

3. Share

- Letting someone else use or have something too

4. Turn

- Waiting for your time to do something

5. Playground

- A place where kids can play outside

6. Blocks

- Toys that you can stack or build with

7. Swings

- A seat that moves back and forth at the playground

8. Happy

- Feeling good and enjoying something you are doing

Spellings

A: Friend

B: Freind

A: Playground

B: Playgrownd

A: Share

B: Shair

A: Turns

B: Turnes

A: Blocks

B: Blockes

A: Swings

B: Swengs

A: Happy

B: Hapy

A: Fun

B: Phun

Comprehension Questions

1. What did the child say to Mia at the playground?

A: "Go away!"

B: "Hi, Mia! Do you want to play?"

2. What did the child and Mia do with the blocks?

A: They did not share

B: They shared and took turns stacking the blocks

3. How did the child feel about going to the swings?

A: A little sad but agreed to go

B: Happy and excited for the swings

C: A little sad but said, "Okay, let's go!"

4. What did the child and Mia do on the swings?

A: They took turns swinging

B: They did not take turns

5. Why was playing with Mia fun?

A: Because they did not share

B: Because sharing and taking turns made it fun

Open-Ended Questions

1. How do you feel when you play with a friend like Mia?
2. What do you think makes sharing and taking turns fun?
3. How can you ask a friend if they want to play with you?
4. What can you do if you want to keep playing with one toy but your friend wants to switch?
5. Why do you think it's important to share and take turns with friends?