

Say Hello, Make a Friend!

I went to the park today.

I saw a boy playing with a ball.

I wanted to play too.

I felt a little shy.

I took a deep breath.

I walked over to him.

I said, "Hello!"

The boy looked at me and smiled.

He said, "Hi! Want to play?"

I felt happy and excited.

I said, "Yes, please!"

We played with the ball together.

It was fun to have a new friend.

Saying "hello" was easy and nice.

Now, I know how to make new friends.

I can say "hello" anytime!

Vocabulary

⇒ ■ Vocabulary:

1. Hello

- A friendly word to say when you meet someone

2. Shy

- Feeling a little nervous or quiet around new people

3. Friend

- Someone you like to play and spend time with

4. Play

- Having fun with toys or games

5. Smile

- Turning up the corners of your mouth to show you're happy

6. Excited

- Feeling very happy and eager to do something

7. Easy

- Something that is simple to do

8. Together

- Doing something with one or more people

Spellings

A: Park

B: Pirk

A: Play

B: Pley

A: Shy

B: Shiy

A: Breath

B: Breth

A: Hello

B: Hallo

A: Excited

B: Exciited

A: Friend

B: Freind

A: Easy

B: Eazy

Comprehension Questions

1. What did I see at the park?

A: A boy playing with a ball

B: A dog chasing a squirrel

2. How did I feel before saying hello to the boy?

A: Very brave

B: A little shy

3. What did I do to feel better before talking to the boy?

A: Took a deep breath

B: Ran away

4. What happened after I said "Hello" to the boy?

A: He ignored me

B: He smiled and asked if I wanted to play

5. How did I feel when the boy asked me to play?

A: Happy and excited

B: Scared and sad

6. What did we do together at the park?

A: We sat quietly

B: We played with the ball

7. What did I learn about making new friends?

A: Saying "hello" is easy and nice

B: It's best to stay quiet

8. When can I say "hello" to make new friends?

A: Only at home

B: Anytime

Open-Ended Questions

1. How do you feel when you meet someone new at the park?
2. What can you do if you feel shy about saying hello to someone?
3. Why do you think saying "hello" can help make a new friend?
4. How do you think the boy felt when you said hello to him?
5. What other ways can you try to make friends when you go to the park?