

Sharing Toys with Friends

I saw my friend playing with blocks.

I wanted to play too.

I felt a little left out.

I took a deep breath.

"Can I join?" I asked.

My friend smiled and nodded.

We built a tower together.

It was my friend's turn first.

I waited and watched.

Then it was my turn.

I added a block to the tower.

"Your turn," I said.

My friend added another block.

We took turns and shared.

I felt happy and proud.

Sharing toys is fun!

Vocabulary

⇒ ■ Vocabulary:

1. Share

- Letting someone else use or play with something you have

2. Friend

- Someone you like and have fun with

3. Join

- To become part of a group or activity

4. Turn

- Waiting for your time to do something

5. Tower

- A tall structure made by stacking things, like blocks

6. Together

- Doing something with someone else

7. Proud

- Feeling happy about something you did well

8. Fun

- Enjoyable and making you happy

Spellings

A: Friend

B: Freind

A: Play

B: Pley

A: Together

B: Togather

A: Tower

B: Towr

A: Turn

B: Turrn

A: Share

B: Shair

A: Happy

B: Hapy

A: Block

B: Blok

Comprehension Questions

1. What should you do if you want to join a friend playing with toys?

A: Take the toys without asking

B: Ask, "Can I join?"

2. How did the friend respond when asked to join?

A: They said no and walked away

B: They smiled and nodded

3. What does it mean to take turns?

A: Play with all the toys by yourself

B: Wait for your turn and let others have a turn

4. How did the characters feel when they shared and took turns?

A: Sad and angry

B: Happy and proud

5. Why is sharing toys fun?

A: Because you can play alone

B: Because you can build and play together with friends

Open-Ended Questions

1. How did you feel when you asked your friend if you could join in playing with the blocks?
2. What do you think makes sharing toys with friends fun?
3. How can you ask a friend if you can play with their toys?
4. Why do you think it's important to take turns when playing with others?
5. How do you feel when you share and play nicely with friends?