

Playing Nicely with Friends at Preschool

I like playing with my friends at preschool.

We have toys, games, and lots of fun together.

Sometimes, I feel excited to play with the toys.

I can ask, "Can I play with you?" if my friends are playing.

If they say yes, I feel happy and join in.

If they say no, I can find another toy or game.

It's okay to wait for my turn with a toy.

When I wait, I feel proud that I am patient.

Sharing toys makes playtime fun for everyone.

I can say, "Your turn," when I finish with a toy.

My friend smiles when I share, and I feel happy.

If I forget to share, a teacher reminds me gently.

I can say, "I'm sorry," and share the toy.

Playing nicely helps me make friends.

My friends and I laugh and have fun together.

I feel proud when I play kindly with my friends.

Vocabulary

⇒ ■ Vocabulary:

1. Friends

- People you like to play and have fun with

2. Toys

- Fun objects to play with, like dolls or cars

3. Excited

- Feeling very happy and eager

4. Share

- Letting someone else play with your toys too

5. Turn

- Waiting for your time to play with something

6. Patient

- Waiting calmly without getting upset

7. Happy

- Feeling good and joyful inside

8. Sorry

- A word to show you care when you make a mistake

Spellings

A: Friends

B: Freinds

A: Preschool

B: Preeschool

A: Excited

B: Exciited

A: Sharing

B: Sharng

A: Patient

B: Paytient

A: Turn

B: Turrn

A: Proud

B: Prouud

A: Together

B: Togethur

Comprehension Questions

1. What can you do if you want to play with your friends?

A: Grab the toy and start playing

B: Ask, "Can I play with you?"

2. What should you do if your friends say you can't play with them?

A: Find another toy or game

B: Cry and shout

3. Why is it important to wait for your turn with a toy?

A: It shows you are patient and kind

B: It means you won't get to play

4. How do you feel when you share toys with friends?

A: Happy and proud

B: Sad and lonely

5. What can you say when you finish with a toy?

A: "Your turn."

B: "Mine forever!"

6. What should you do if you forget to share?

A: Keep the toy to yourself

B: Say, "I'm sorry," and share the toy

7. Why is playing nicely with friends important?

A: It helps you make friends and have fun

B: It makes everyone upset

Open-Ended Questions

1. How do you feel when you ask, "Can I play with you?" and your friends say yes?
2. What can you do if your friends say no when you ask to join their play?
3. Why do you think sharing toys makes playtime more fun?
4. How do you feel when you wait for your turn with a toy?
5. What can you do to help remind yourself to share with friends?