

“Every person has things they enjoy doing, and so do I.”

“These things are called my hobbies and interests.”

“I might already know some things I love.”

“But there are many new things I can explore and try.”

“I can discover my interests by paying attention to what makes me feel happy.”

“I can try activities like drawing, music, reading, sports, or building.”

“Sometimes I enjoy something right away.”

“Sometimes I’m not sure, and that’s okay too.”

“Trying new things helps me learn what I like.”

“If I don’t like something, I can stop and try something else.”

“I can talk to my family or teachers to find new ideas.”

“Hobbies help me relax, have fun, and feel good inside.”

“My interests can grow and change as I grow too.”

“There is no right or wrong hobby—only things I enjoy.”

“Finding what I love helps me learn more about myself.”

“I can discover new hobbies and interests every day, in my own time and my own way.”

Vocabulary

- Hobby

A: Something I enjoy doing in my free time. (Correct)

B: Something I am forced to do.

- Interest

A: Something I like or want to learn more about.
(Correct)

B: Something I ignore.

- Explore

A: To try new things with curiosity. (Correct)

B: To do the same thing every day.

- Relax

A: To feel calm and peaceful. (Correct)

B: To rush through activities.

- Discover

A: To find something new. (Correct)

B: To lose something important.

Spellings

A: Hobbie

B: Hobby (Correct)

A: Try (Correct)

B: Trie

A: Book (Correct)

B: Buke

A: Myusic

B: Music (Correct)

A: Sport (Correct)

B: Spourt

Comprehension

- How can I discover new hobbies?
A: By trying new activities and seeing what I enjoy. (Correct)
B: By doing only one thing forever.

- What can I do if I don't like a hobby?
A: Stop and try something else. (Correct)
B: Force myself to keep doing it.

- Who can help me find new interests?
A: Family or teachers. (Correct)
B: No one at all.

- Do my hobbies have to stay the same forever?
A: No, they can grow and change as I grow. (Correct)
B: Yes, they must stay the same always.

- What do hobbies help me feel?
A: Happy, relaxed, and good inside. (Correct)
B: Tired and stressed.

Open-Ended Questions

- What activities do you enjoy the most right now?

- What new hobby would you like to try next?

- How do you feel when you find something you love doing?

- Who helps you discover fun and interesting activities?

Role-Play Activity

- Scenario 1

Practice saying, “I’d like to try this.”

- Scenario 2

Practice saying, “That’s okay. I can try something else.”

- Scenario 3

Practice responding, “I’ll give it a try!”

- Scenario 4

Practice sharing it with a trusted adult.