

Teamwork Makes Tasks Easier

Today, I wanted to build a big puzzle.
It had many pieces, and I felt a little worried.

I sat on the floor and tried to fit the pieces together. It was hard, and I felt stuck.

My friend Mia saw me. She smiled and asked if I needed help. I thought for a moment.

I said, "Yes, please!" Mia sat next to me. I felt happy to have a friend.

We looked at the picture on the box.
Mia found the corner pieces. I felt excited.

We worked together, piece by piece.
We talked and laughed. I liked having a helper.

Soon, the puzzle was almost done. I felt proud. We did it together!

I learned that asking for help makes things easier. Teamwork is fun and makes me feel strong.
