

the sun

the earth

the moon

the star

the sky

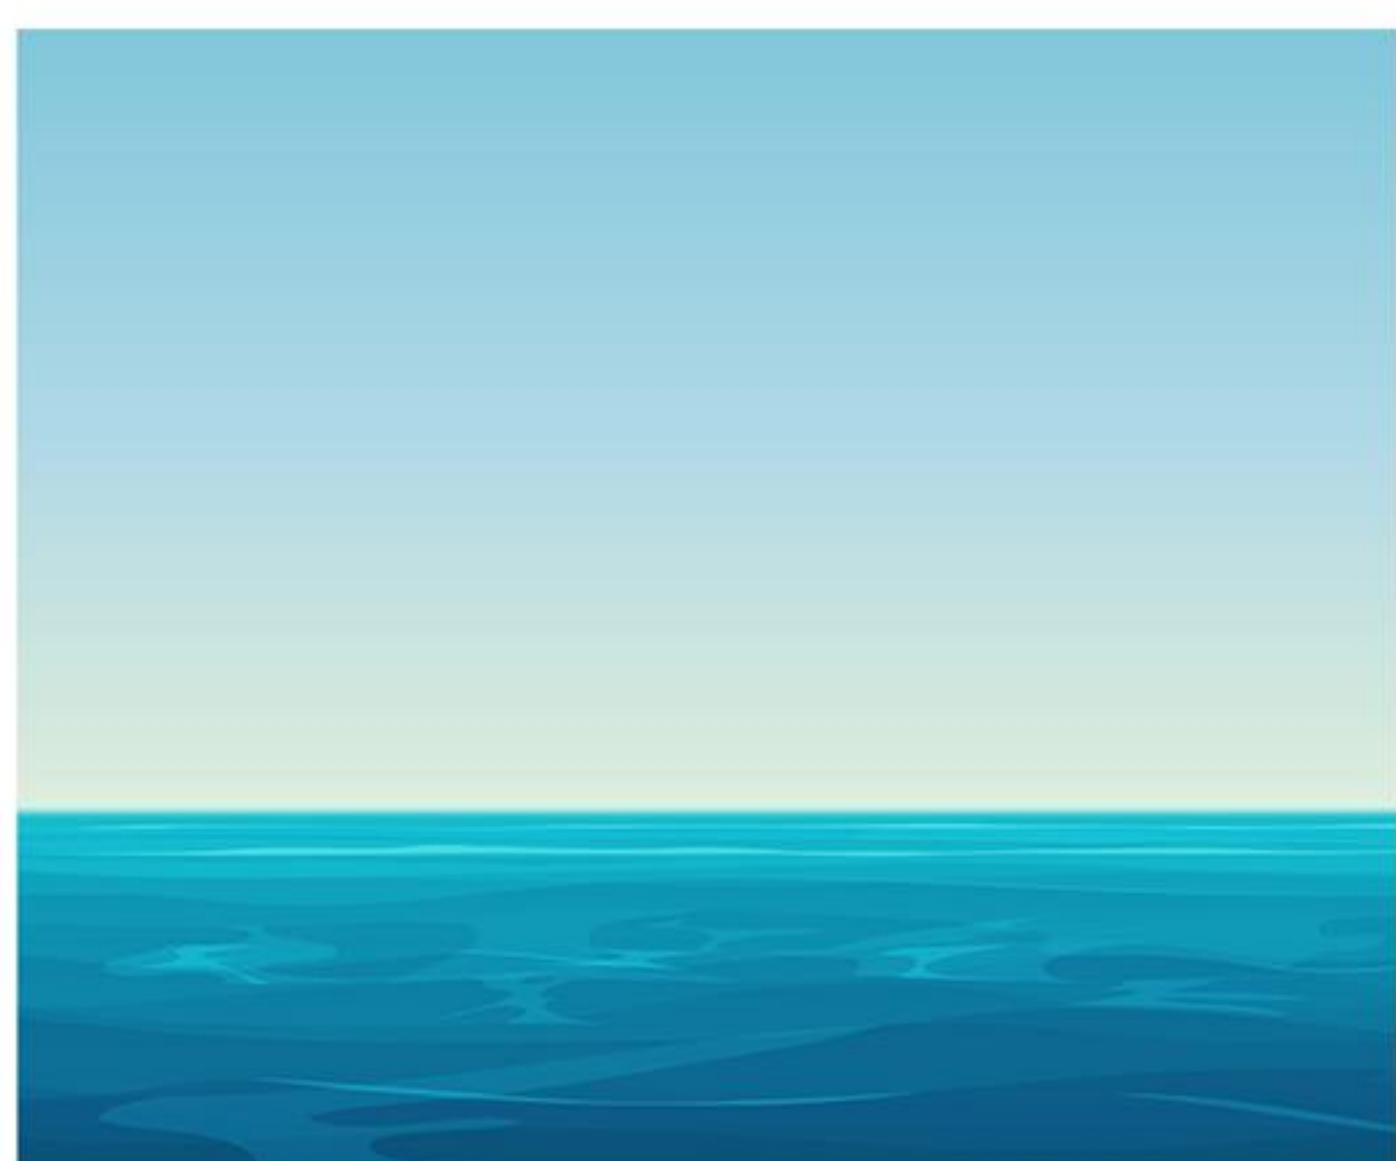

the river

the ocean

the forest

the sea

the desert

the mountain

the cloud

the rain

the rainbow

the wind

the park

the zoo

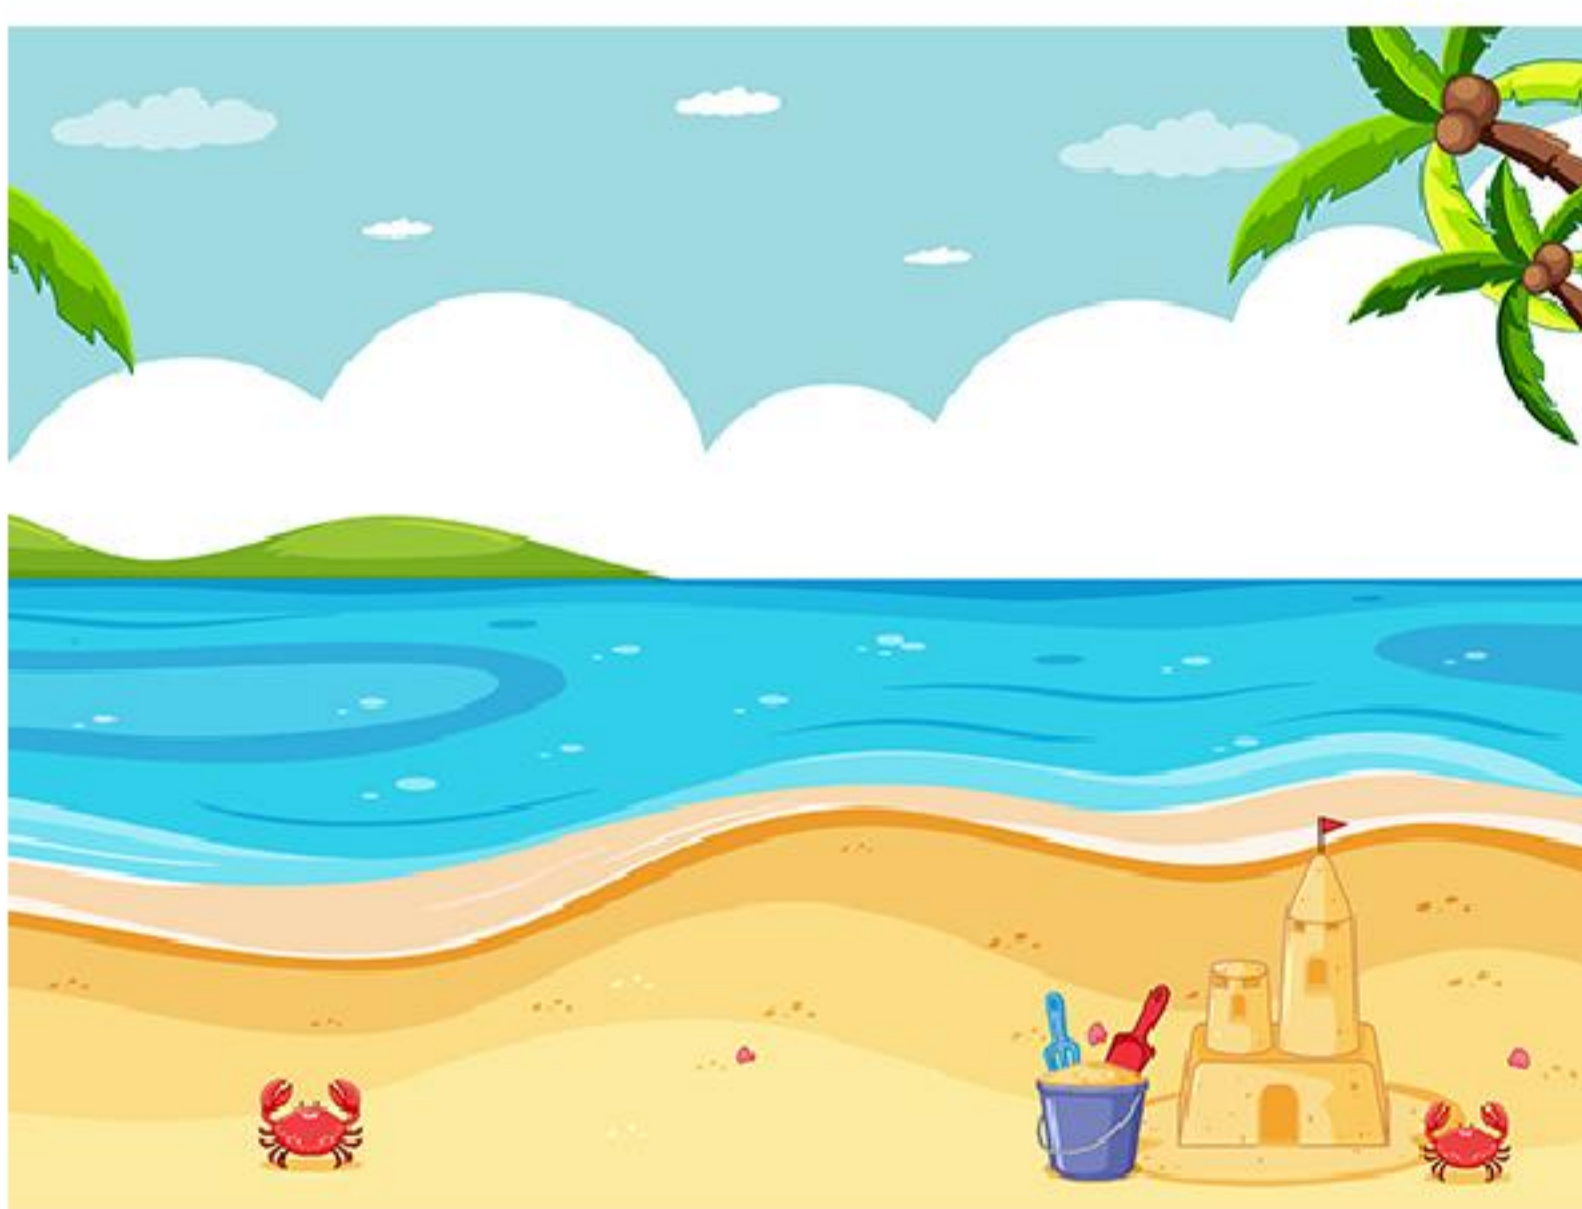

the school

the library

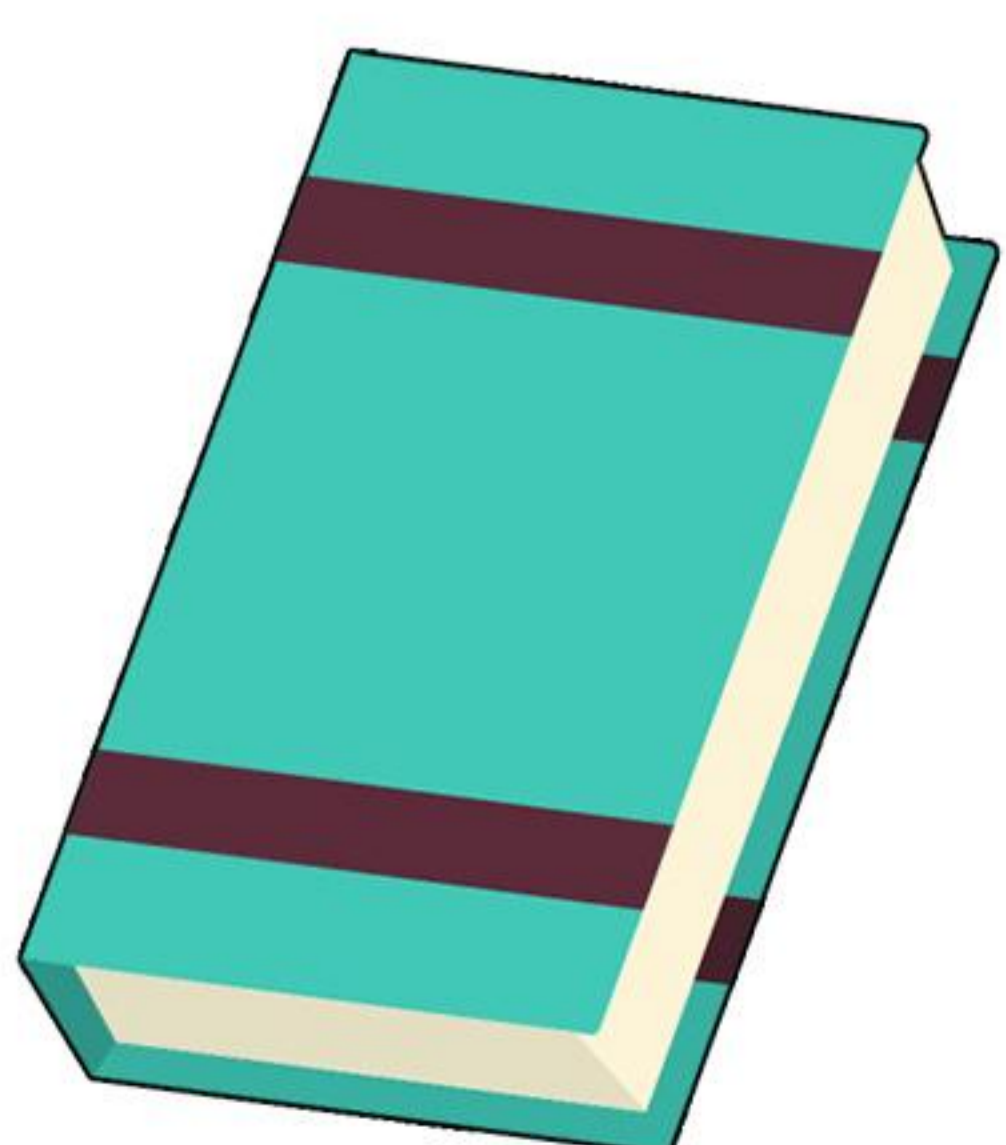

the playground

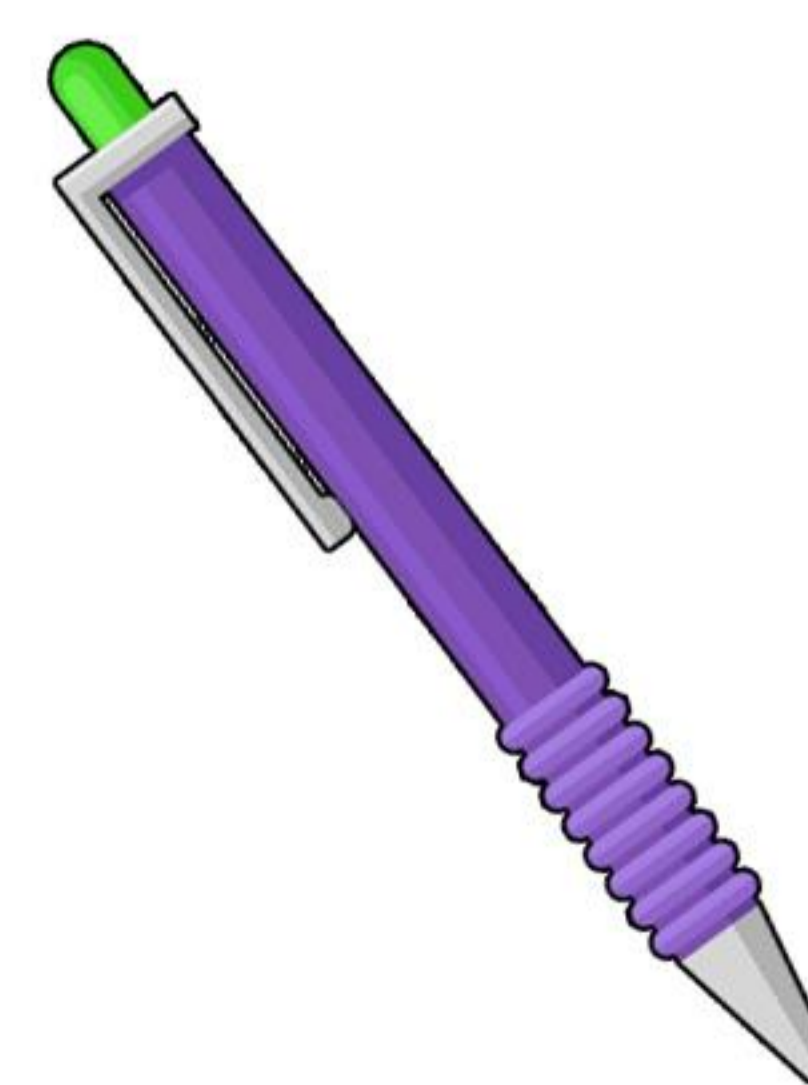

the beach

the garden

the book

the pen

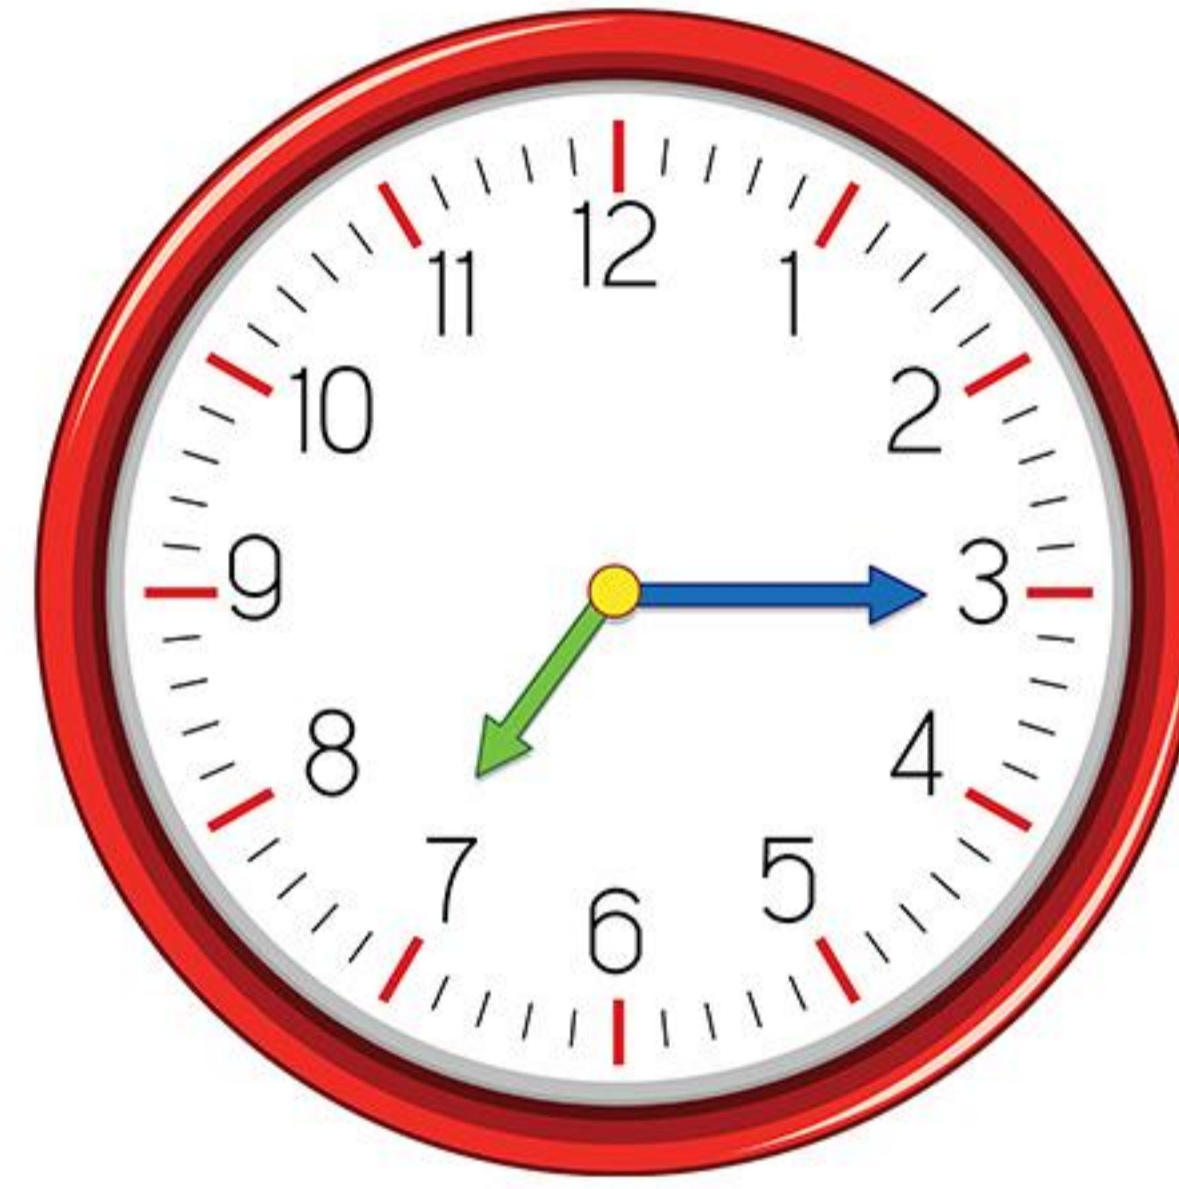

the table

the chair

the door

the clock

the ball

the bag

the Eiffel Tower

the Statue of Liberty

the Taj Mahal

the Great Wall of China

the teacher

the principal

the doctor

the nurse

the baby

the child

the boy

the girl

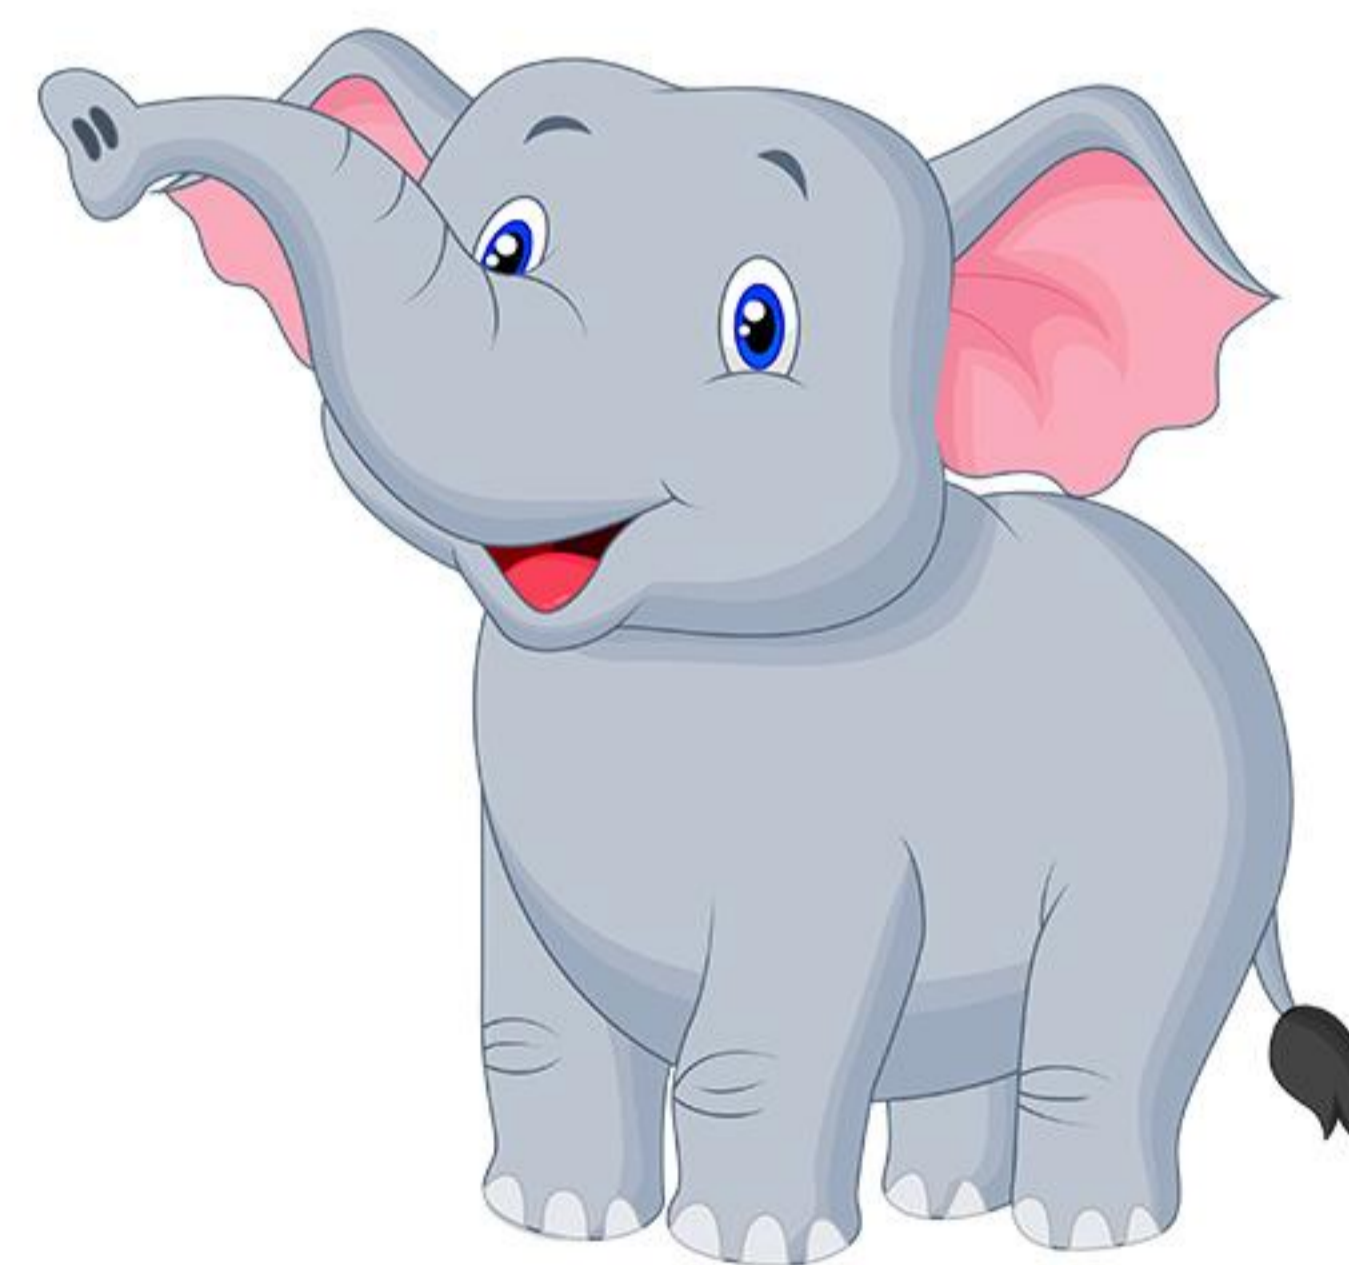

the cat

the dog

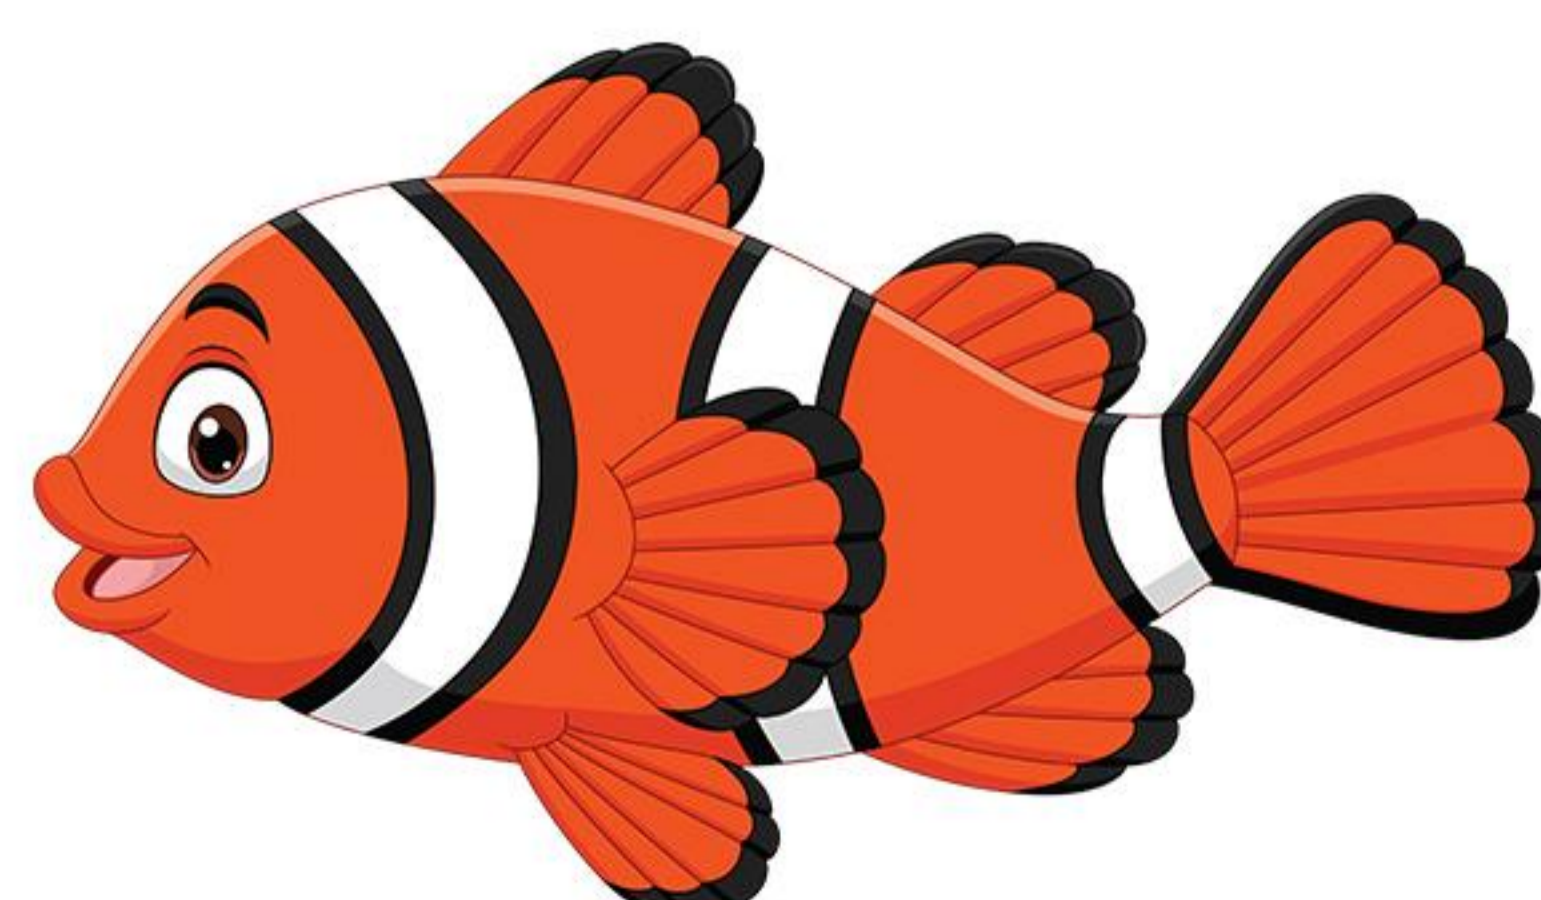

the lion

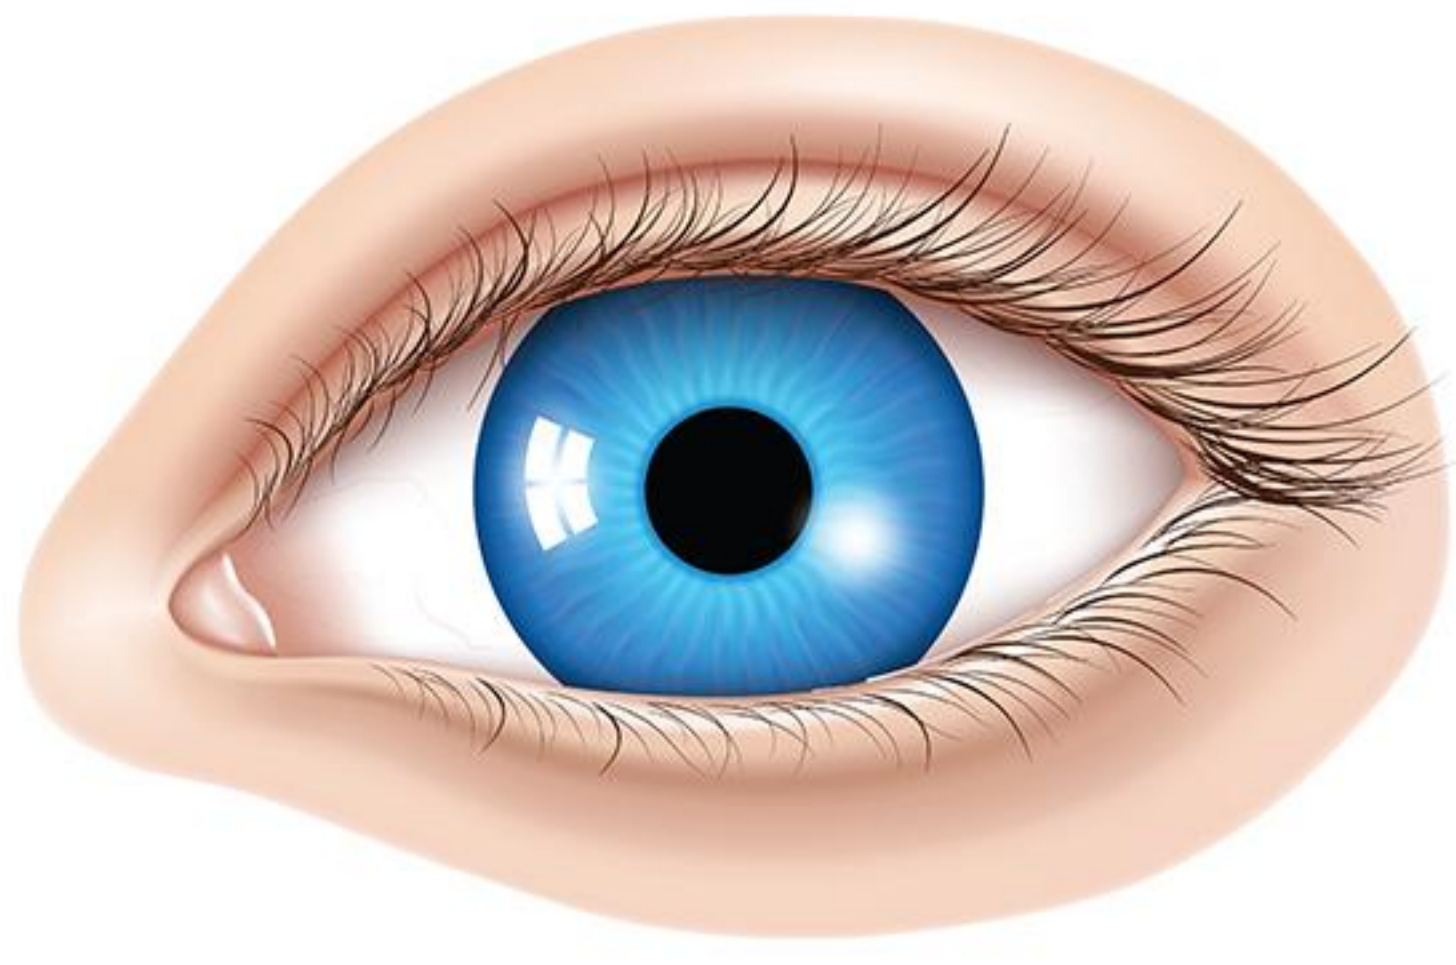

the elephant

the rabbit

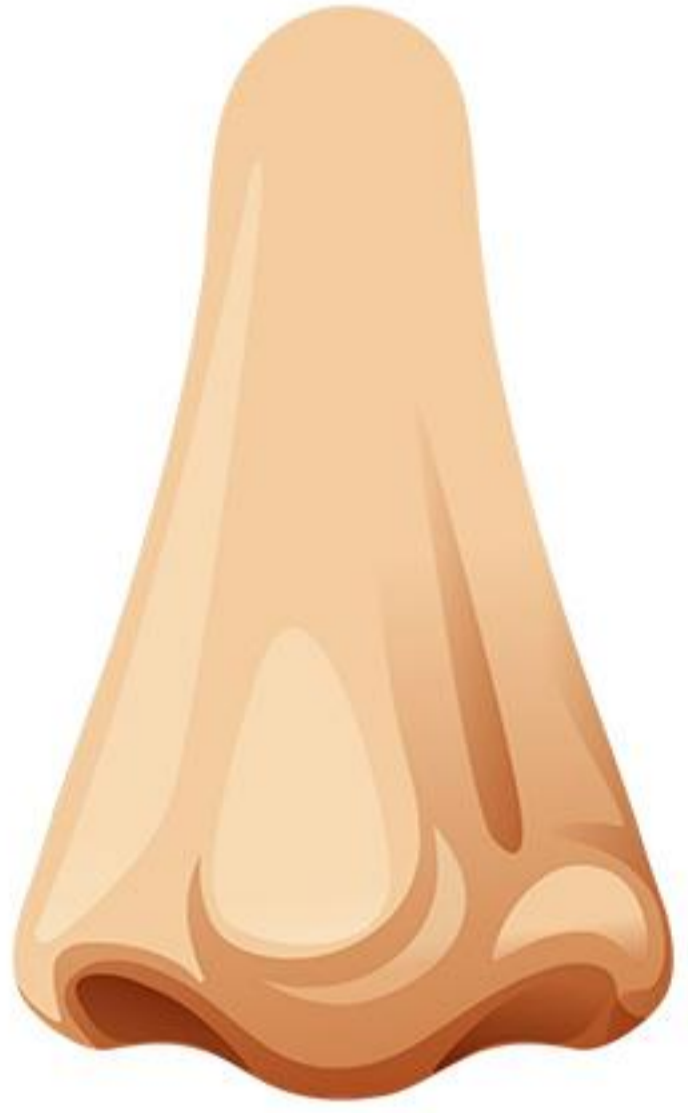

the fish

the eyes

the ears

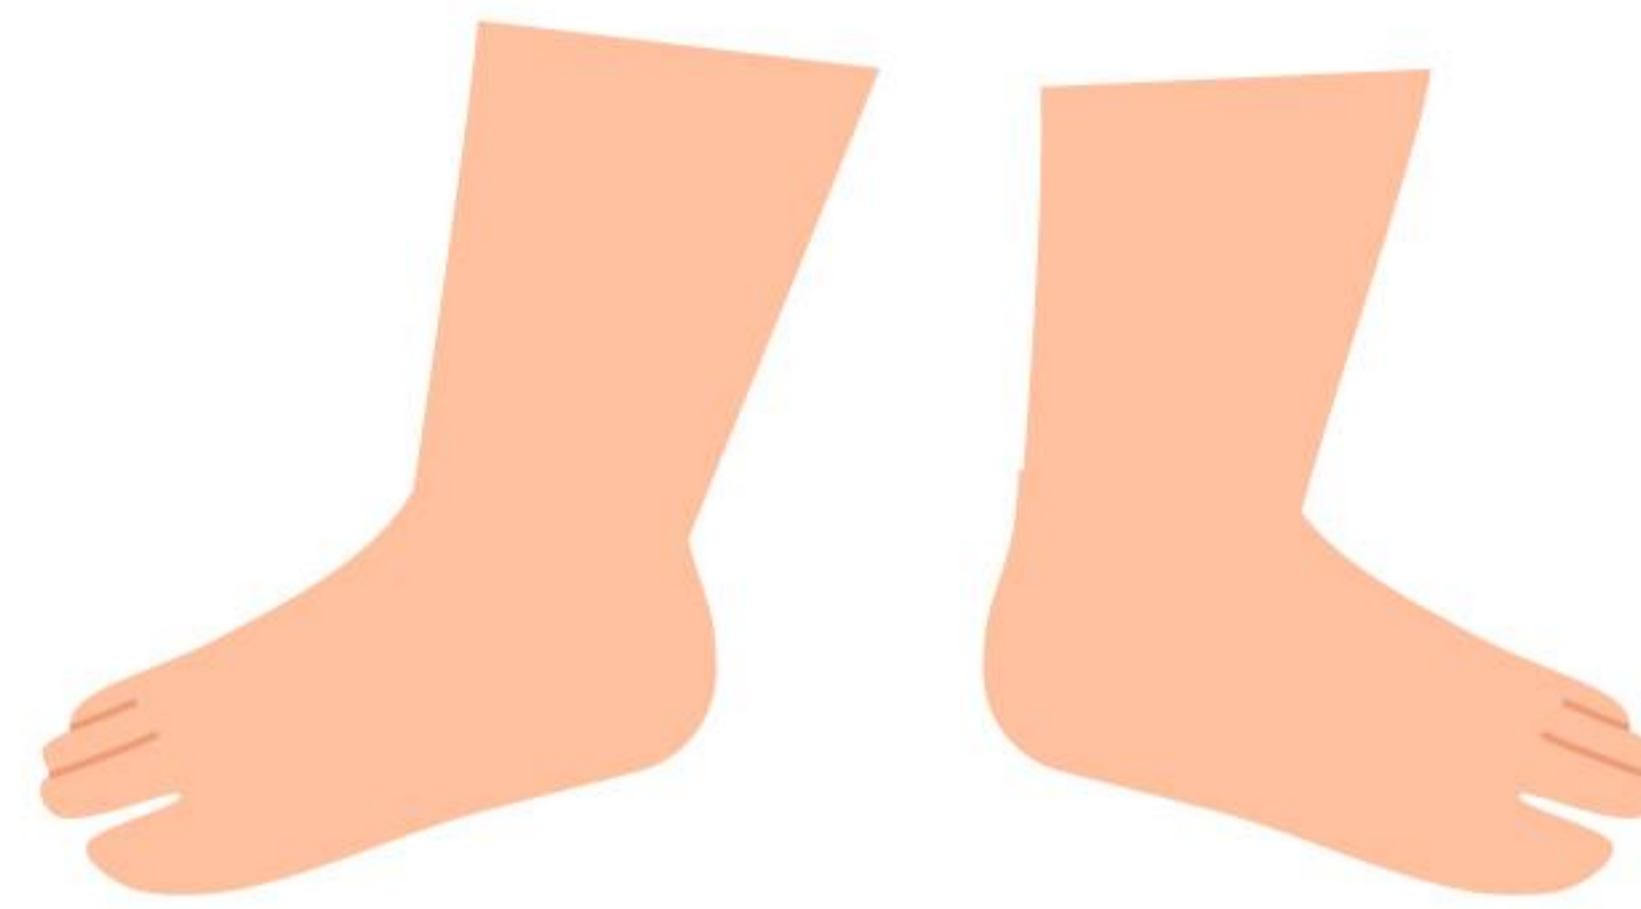

the nose

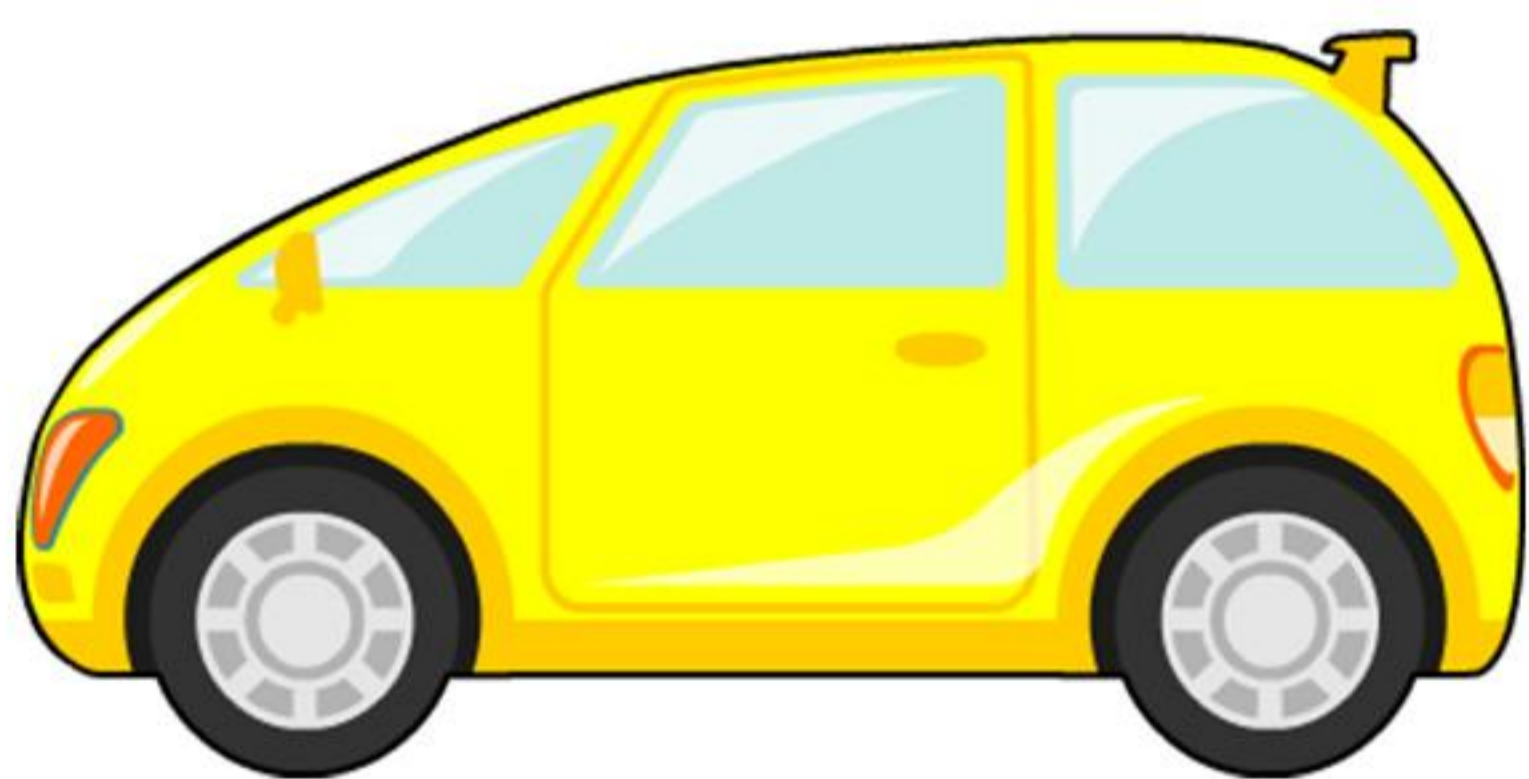

the mouth

the hands

the feet

the car

the bus

the train

the plane

the ship

the Christmas
tree

When to Use "The"

Rule 1: Use "the" to refer to something specific or unique.

"The" points to a particular object or thing.

Examples:

- The Sun
- The Moon
- The Earth
- The sky
- The ocean

Rule 2: Use "the" when both the speaker and listener know what is being referred to.

Examples:

- The book on the table.
- The toy we just played with.
- The dog in the park.

Rule 3: Use "the" when referring to the same thing again.

The first time you mention something, you use "a" or "an."
After that, use "the."

Examples:

- I saw a cat. The cat was playing with a ball.

Rule 4: Use "the" for names of specific things or places.

Examples:

- The zoo
- The beach
- The mountains
- The library

Quick Tips to Remember:

- Use "the" for one-of-a-kind things.
- Use "the" for something familiar to everyone in the conversation.
- Use "the" when you repeat a noun in your story.

Fun Examples

- The stars are shining brightly.
- The rainbow has many colors.
- The garden is full of flowers.
- The book is open on the desk.
- The mountain is covered with snow.

Practice Makes Perfect!

Say these sentences aloud:

- The sky is blue.
- The fish swims in the water.
- The ball is under the chair.
- The teacher is in the classroom.